

DIPLOMA IN GENERAL NURSING AND MIDWIFERY –SECOND YEAR
EXAMINATION, FEBRUARY -- 2024
NEW SYLLABUS
PAPER-IV-- CHILD HEALTH NURSING

Time: Three hours

Maximum marks: 75

Note:1. Answer all the questions
2. Draw diagrams wherever necessary

I. Define the following: 5x1=5

- a. Protein energy malnutrition
- b. Infant mortality rate
- c. Epispadiasis
- d. Mental retardation
- e. Disability.

II. Fill in the blanks 5X1=5

- a. Juvenile justice Act is -----
- b. Trisomy 21 chromosomes is -----
- c. Nutritional assessment is assessed in the scale-----
- d. Mumps is caused by -----.
- e. Transfusion of liquid food through ryle's tube is known as-----.

III. Match the following 5X1=5

S.NO	A	B
1)	Bell's palsy	a) Neural tube defect
2)	Child safety	b) Rickets
3)	Meningo myelocele	c) Connection between wind pipe and esophagus
4)	Vitamin D deficiency in children	d) Facial nerve injury
5)	Tracheo esophageal fistula	e) Prevention of accidental injuries

IV. True or false, if false give the correct answer:

5 X 1 = 5

1. DPT Vaccine is live attenuated vaccine.
2. Growth hormone deficiency is leads to dwarfism
3. Bluish discoloration of the mucous membrane is apnea.
4. Wilms tumor otherwise known as nephroblastoma.
5. ICCW Agency affiliated with International to organize child welfare services.

V. Write short notes on any five of the following:

5X5=25

1. Rights of the child.
2. Types of play.
3. Oxygen therapy.
4. Patent ductus arteriosus.
5. Rheumatic fever.
6. Nurses role in specially abled children.

VI. Answer any three of the following:

3X10=30

1. Define Growth and development, explain in detail about factors affecting growth and development.
2. Define diarrhea, list out the causes, signs and symptoms, medical and nursing management of diarrhoea , with its nursing process.
3. Discuss about the congenital anomalies of the children.
4. Define leukaemia, enlist the types, clinical features, diagnostic evaluation.
medical and surgical management of leukaemia.