

DIPLOMA IN GENERAL NURSING AND MIDWIFERY – SECOND YEAR
EXAMINATION – FEBRUARY 2025

NEW SYLLABUS
PAPER IV – CHILD HEALTH NURSING

Time : Three hours

Maximum marks : 75

- Note:
1. Answer all the questions
 2. Draw diagrams wherever necessary

I. Define the following

(5x1=5)

1. Growth
2. Hyperbilirubinemia
3. Toddler
4. Hydrocephalus
5. Marasmus

II. Fill up the blanks with suitable words

(5x1=5)

1. Baby's Birth weight doubles in _____ months.
2. _____ is the yellowish breast milk that is produced in the first few days after baby's birth.
3. _____ is called eating non-nutritive, non-food substances over a period of at least one month.
4. _____ is a clinical state that includes massive proteinuria, hypoalbuminemia, hyperlipidaemia, and edema.
5. Night blindness is caused by deficiency of vitamin _____ .

III. Match the following

(5x1=5)

- | | |
|-------------------------|---|
| 1. Caput Succedaneum | a. Temper tantrums |
| 2. Behavioural disorder | b. Orthomyxoviruses |
| 3. Pyloric stenosis | c. Birth Injury |
| 4. Kyphosis | d. Projectile vomiting |
| 5. Influenza | e. Excessive outward curvature of the spine |

(P.T.O)

IV. Write True or false, if false give the correct answer: (5x1=5)

1. Visual acuity in children tested by using Snellen chart
2. An infant born after 42 weeks of gestational age regardless of birth weight is called Post term infant.
3. The children play independently but among other children is called Parallel play
4. Failure of one or both testes to descend normally through inguinal canal is called Epispadias
5. Hirschsprung disease is a congenital anomaly that results in mechanical obstruction from inadequate motility of part of the intestine

V. Write short notes on any FIVE of the following (5x5=25)

1. Preventive Paediatrics
2. Phototherapy
3. Principles of growth and development
4. Tonsillitis
5. Advantages of Breast feeding
6. Midday Meal Programme

VI. Explain any THREE of the following (3x10=30)

- 1 Define Preterm Baby. Explain the characteristics and care of Preterm Baby.
- 2 Explain various types of Play in children.
- 3 Write in detail about Tetralogy of Fallot with Nursing process.
- 4 Define Appendicitis. Explain the clinical manifestations, medical, surgical management and Nursing management with Nursing process.
