

DIPLOMA IN GENERAL NURSING AND MIDWIFERY – SECOND YEAR EXAMINATION, SEPTEMBER -2025
NEW SYLLABUS
PAPER IV - CHILD HEALTH NURSING

Time : 3 Hours

Maximum Marks: 75

NOTE:1.Answer all the Questions 2.Draw the Diagrams wherever necessary

1 Multiple choice questions

20X1=20

1. Paediatric is a branch of science deals with care of
a) Children b) Adolescent c) Adult d) Old age 2. Baby's birth weight typically double at the age of
a) 6 Months b) 12 Months c) 15 Months d) 18 Months
3. Milk ejection reflex occurs due to hormone
a) prolactin b) oestrogen c) oxytocin d) androgen 4. Abnormal protrusion of organ through abdomen wall is
A) Atresia b) hernia c) Stasis d) Malformation 5. Phototherapy is used to absorb
a) Calcium b) Bilirubin c) Protein d) None 6. Preventive measures for the road accidents in adolescents are
a) using earphone b) wearing helmets c) speeding d) using mobile phones.
7. The psycho social development of the Toddler is
a) Autonomy Vs Shame b) Trust Vs Mistrust
c) Initiative Vs Guilt d) Identity Vs Role confusion 8. Sign of dehydration in 3 months infant is
a) sunken fontanelle b) bulging fontanelle c) increased urinary output d) increased body weight 9. Cryptorchidism otherwise known as
a) Paraphimosis b) Undescended testis c) Epispadias d) Exstrophy of bladder 10. Complication of folic acid deficiency is A) skeletal disorder b) neural tube defect
c) vascular system defect d) cardiovascular system defect 11. The drug of choice of diabetes insipidus is
a) Phenytoin b) Insulin c) Vasopressin d) Prednisolone 12. Abnormal connection between pulmonary artery and aorta
a) Tricuspid atresia b) Atrial septal defect
c) Aortic stenosis d) Patent Ductus arteriosus 13. Inability to maintain urinary control of children is
a) Encopresis b) Enuresis c) Somnambulism d) dysuria

14. Water soluble vitamin is
 a) Vitamin A b) Vitamin C c) Vitamin D d) Vitamin E 15. Vaccine given to prevent Tuberculosis
 a) MMR vaccine b) BCG vaccine c) Hepatitis-A vaccine d) Polio vaccine 16. Neonatal umbilical cord contain a) 3 veins b) 3 arteries c) 2 arteries & 1 vein d) 2 arteries 17. The outward bending of foot is known as
 a) Talipes b) Talipes Varus c) Calcaneus d) Talipes Valgus 18. Complication of excessive oxygen administration for premature new born
 a) retro-peritoneal syndrome b) retro-lentil hyperplasia
 c) peri-orbital hyperplasia d) adrenal hyperplasia syndrome 19. Projectile vomiting is a clinical feature of
 a) necrotizing enterocolitis b) pyloric stenosis
 c) Hirschsprung's disease d) intestinal obstruction 20. Koplik's spot seen in a) Herpes simplex b) Chicken pox c) Measles d) Whooping cough.

II. Write short notes on any FIVE of the following

5X5=25

1. Pneumonia
2. Down Syndrome
3. Preventive paediatrics
4. Mental Retardation.
5. Breast feeding and its important.
6. Rheumatic fever.

III. Answer in detail any THREE of the following

3X10=30

1. Define Meningitis. Enlist the causes, classification, investigation, signs and symptoms and write management of Meningitis with nursing process.
2. Define Acute Glomerulonephritis. List out the causes, clinical manifestations and write the management of Acute Glomerulonephritis .
3. Define Congenital cardiac defects and write the classification of cyanotic heart disease. and explain about "Tetralogy of Fallot" including nursing process.
4. Write about factors affecting growth & development and describe immunization schedule.

THE END**